PRIVATE EVENTS

Soho's most atmospheric venue for hire

ABOUT BASEMENT SATE

Where Soho Meets After Dark

Tucked beneath the streets of Broadwick Street, Basement Sate is one of Soho's most sought-after private hire venues — a dimly lit, atmospheric cocktail bar with a personality all of its own.

Dark wood, exposed brick, leather Chesterfields and the low hum of great music: this is the stage for your perfect private event. From intimate gatherings to full venue buyouts, we tailor every experience to the people celebrating it.

We can cater to any event type and budget — because no two occasions are the same, and no two guests are either.

"An unforgettable night starts here."

Reasons to Make This Your Venue

- Central Soho location

Easy for every guest to reach, and impossible to forget. Steps from Oxford Street, Carnaby Street and the West End.

- An atmosphere that does the work

Exposed brick, low lighting and leather Chesterfields create the mood before the first drink is poured.

- Award-winning cocktails

We do not do boring drinks. Every pour is crafted with care, from timeless classics to creations built around your event.

- Fully flexible — nothing cookie-cutter

Every package is tailored to you. Guest list, music, drinks, food, timing — tell us what you want and we will make it happen.

- An experienced team

Hundreds of private events and counting. We know what makes a night unforgettable, and we handle every detail so you do not have to.

- Licensed until 1:30am

Late licence included as standard, with extension available on request.
